

December 6, 2022

Good morning! It's Zain from 731 and I'm here this Talk A Lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Did you know that the 13th Amendment was ratified on December 6, 1865? According to the 13th Amendment, "no slavery nor involuntary servitude shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to the authority of such States, unless as a punishment for crime whereof the person shall have been duly convicted." In a short, the 13th Amendment formally ended slavery.

Today we are all seen as equals. The goal of equality is to give every person the same chance to maximize their potential as a person and as a contributor to society.

"Equality" is defined by Aristotle as "the same treatment of similar persons." No matter how different our backgrounds and cultures are, we should all respect one another.

Thanks for listening have a Treat Everyone Equally Tuesday 😊
