Good morning! It's Rainie from 731 and I'm here this SEAL Summary Friday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is a special day it is Malcolm X Day, celebrating the life and legacy of an influential civil rights activist.

Malcolm X once said, "Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today." This quote reminds us that knowledge and understanding are powerful tools for creating positive change. As we honor Malcolm X, let's strive to educate ourselves about different perspectives, cultures, and histories. By doing so, we can build a more inclusive and empathetic community.

Remember, each of us plays an important role in promoting social and emotional awareness. Let's continue to foster a safe and respectful environment where everyone feels valued and supported. Let's embrace the power of education and unity in our journey toward a more equitable world.

Thanks for listening have a Fairness Unites Friday ☺

On another note, if you are planning to participate in the talent show please pick up your permission slip in room 515. It's essential to have this slip filled out and signed by a parent or guardian to join the practice sessions. First practice date is Monday the 22nd in the auditorium.
