Good morning! It's Irene Qiu from 731 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

This week is actually National Nurses Week. National Nurses Week provides an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the importance of school nurses. School nurses play a crucial role in supporting the social and well-being of students. Falling annually on the second week of May, school nurses can play a vital role in providing support and resources to students. School nurses are often the first point of contact for students who may be experiencing mental health issues or are struggling with social and emotional issues. As the actor, Michael J. Fox once said, "School nurses are often the first health professionals that a child sees each day, and they can make a big difference in a child's health and education. They are unsung heroes of our schools."

So, use today as an opportunity to show our appreciation and gratitude to the school nurses who provide support and care for struggling students.

Thanks for listening have a Take Care of Yourself Thursday 😊

SEAL Team pledge:

We are the Dyker S.E.A.L. Team

Positivity is our dream

We teach it every day

To help others live the optimistic way

We learn to control our emotions and feelings

So, we always have effective social dealings

No stone left unturned; no person left behind

Every member of our team has the power to be kind

We spread kindness to our friends, families, and those who need a smile

When facing hardships and adversity, the S.E.A.L. Team goes the extra mile
