Good Morning IS.201! It's Zain from 731 and I'm here for this Talk A Lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is not just any ordinary day, it's Virtual Advocacy Day! But what does that even mean? Well, it's a day where we get to learn about the things that our lawmakers are working on and how it affects us as citizens. We can also take-action by donating, volunteering or even writing to our Congressperson about an important cause that we care about.

As Helen Keller once said, "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much." Our voices matter and together we can make a difference. Let's take charge of our future and advocate for the change we want to see in the world. Thank you!

Thanks for listening have a Take-Action Tuesday 😊
